Clayton Miller Named PBC Baseball Player of the Week

Posted: Apr 08, 2013

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University junior catcher Clayton Miller has been named the Peach Belt Conference's baseball Player of the Week, announced today by league officials.

Miller had a phenomenal week offensively and defensively as the Pirates went 4-0. The Augusta, Ga, native hit .632 with multiple hits in all four games. He hit .643 in a three-game series against Flagler with six combined RBIs. He went 4-for-5 in the opener with three RBIs, then 3-for-5 in game two with a triple and two more driven in. He finished the series by going 2-for-4 with another RBI.

Miller scored four runs and had a .789 slugging percentage on the week, while behind the plate, he threw out two of three base stealers and made no errors in 24 chances. Miller is currently sixth in the PBC with a .405 batting average on the season and he is also fifth in the league in runners caught stealing.

He is the second Armstrong player to earn the league's Player of the Week award this season, joining Chris Zittrouer (February 5), and this is the second Player of the Week award that Miller has earned in his career as he was also the league's Player of the Week as a sophomore on February 14, 2012.

Miller and the Pirates are next in action on Tuesday, April 9, traveling to Pembroke, N.C., for a non-conference neutral site matchup against Pfeiffer at 6:30 p.m.
